

STUDENT LIFE

Central Alabama Community College provides a variety of organizations, activities, and events that aim to enrich your academic experience. These events create opportunities to broaden your social circle, to explore new interests, and to cultivate leadership skills and personal growth.

We encourage you to explore our registered clubs and organizations and contact the advisor or sponsor to learn more about upcoming activities. Attending events with a friend can make it more enjoyable, so consider inviting your peers.

If you have a particular interest not currently represented in our clubs and organizations, we invite you email deanofstudents@cacc.edu for more information. Our team will review your proposal and contact you to discuss your interest further.

STUDENT CLUB & ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTIONS

AMBASSADORS: Ambassadors are students that serve as hosts and hostesses for the college. In that capacity, they serve as student public relations representatives and recruiting agents. Ambassadors conduct campus tours, attend career fairs and assist the administration, staff, and faculty with various events throughout the year, providing a student link with alumni, visiting dignitaries, guests and prospective students. Ambassador Scholarships are awarded to high school seniors who have excelled in leadership. Students must have a minimum of a 2.5 GPA with an ACT score.

BASS FISHING TEAM: The Bass Fishing Team is for collegiate anglers who wish to participate in local, state, regional, and national intercollegiate bass fishing tournaments. Anglers generally fish in Southern Collegiate Bass, Major League Fishing (MLF) Abu Garcia College Fishing Circuit, Bass Master College, and Association of Collegiate Anglers Tournaments. Club eligibility requirements: Students must maintain full-time status at 12 credit hours, maintain 2.0 GPA, and be current members of MLF and BASS. Students must also participate in fundraising activities throughout the year.

 FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES: The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an international non-profit Christian sports ministry. It presents to coaches and athletes, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in their relationships, and in the fellowship of the church.

PHI THETA KAPPA: Phi Theta Kappa is the largest internationally-recognized honor society of two-year and community colleges. The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa shall be to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students. To achieve this purpose, Phi Theta Kappa shall provide opportunity for the development of leadership and service, for an intellectual climate for exchange of ideas and ideals, for lively fellowship for scholars, and for stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence. Phi Theta Kappa's mission is two-fold: Recognize and encourage the academic achievement of two-year college students and provide opportunities for individual growth and development through participation in honors, leadership, service, and fellowship programming. Membership in Phi Theta Kappa is extended by invitation only.

ROTARACT: Rotaract is a student organization sponsored by the Rotary Club to recognize the positive change implemented by youth and young adults as the fifth Avenue of Service, Youth Service, through an active and personal commitment to empower young adults and young professionals to take action through community and international service, develop leadership skills through professional development, and gain a global perspective that fosters world peace and cultural understanding as partners in service; and for students and young professionals to take action through community and international service that creates sustainable solutions to local and global challenges, connect with the global community of Rotary to expand professional networks, exchange ideas with leaders, and cultivate lifelong friendship around the world, develop skills to become community and global leaders, make friends locally and globally, and have fun while recognizing the importance of Service Above Self.

SCHOLARS BOWL: The Scholars Bowl is a group organized for the promotion of academic excellence. They compete in statewide competition with teams from other two-year colleges and assists with the organization and promotion of high school scholars' teams. Admission to the group is by faculty selection based on grade point average.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB: Psychology Club will meet monthly and discuss psychological topics, careers, and current events. We may occasionally host guest speakers.

NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENT ORGANIZATION: The Non-Traditional Student Organization will meet monthly to provide academic resources as well as social and motivational support for non-traditional students. Any currently enrolled student may join and participate, though this organization is geared towards the needs of our target demographic.

 SIGMA KAPPA DELTA: Sigma Kappa Delta (SKD) is the English Honor Society for two-year colleges and is defined by the common goal of promoting excellence in the disciplines of the English language. Sigma Kappa Delta's central purpose is to confer distinction upon students of the English language and literature in undergraduate studies. Eligibility requirements include 12 hours of college-level course work, at least one college-level English course, all As or Bs in English courses attempted, and a 3.0 cumulative GPA. Membership in SKD is extended by invitation only. SKD publishes a CACC Student Newsletter, The Trojan Times.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION: The SGA has a major role in all phases of the extracurricular program and represents the student body in all matters of concern to students. This association operates under a constitution drawn up by the students, and each campus will elect executive officers.

TROJANS IN CHRIST: Trojans in Christ is a campus ministry that offers students an opportunity to grow in their faith, leadership skills, discipleship and personal relationships. Whether you have been to church all your life, or this is a first-time faith experience, this will be a time to grow. Students will find worship, Bible study, music, food, fun, friendships, mission opportunities and much more. Together we will help each other grow in a relationship with Christ and help lead others to Him. Everyone is welcome to join our campus ministry! Our goal is to help students meet spiritual needs by finding hope and purpose for their lives.
