

Student Achievement

Course Completion

Course completion is monitored by the Dean of Instruction and also monitored by each academic division. The statewide Data Access and Exchange (DAX) provides Central Alabama Community College with a variety of reports on student achievement. The College actively seeks to correct issues with course completion when they are found.

