STATEMENT OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Central Alabama Community College has filed with the Federal Government an Assurance of Compliance with all requirements imposed by or pursuant to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Regulation issued there under, to the end that no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity sponsored by this College. It is also the policy of Central Alabama Community College to be in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 which provides that “no person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” Further, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 states that “no qualified persons shall, on the basis of handicap or otherwise, be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity that receives the benefits from Federal financial assistance.” Essential programs, services, conferences, and meetings conducted by the College will be accessible to all people who desire to attend. A student having a disability that might require special materials, services, or assistance should contact the ADA coordinator at least 48 hours in advance at 256/215-4269, 256/378-2004, or 256/480-5069. For TDD users in Alabama, the Alabama Relay Center is available at 1-800-548-2546. Materials related to compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 are maintained by the ADA Coordinator in the Student Services Office at each location.

Persons, individually or as a group, who perceive themselves to be subjected to discrimination prohibited by Title VI or Title IX of the Act and Regulation issued there under, or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 may file a written complaint with the United States Education Department, with this College, or with both. For further information contact the Office of Student Services. Contact information is located on the inside front cover of this Catalog.
