

Cell Phones

Classroom and laboratory use of cellular telephones and other electronic communication devices is prohibited unless authorized by the instructor. Students are asked to turn off cell phones during class or place them in silent mode. Instructors may authorize cell phone use for specific projects or activities and approve use of cell phones in extenuating circumstances.